ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED!
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS
MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGER, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become desperate. She brings together those long separated; gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the male stars that overcome, or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fall not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs but a trifle, and you may never again have as favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Is Polygamy a Crime?

We never had a doubt that the practice of polygamy is a crime at which nature shudders and society stands aghast, and in violation of the revealed will of God, to man. We know that there is a statute of the United States declaring the practice of it a felony, in her Territories, and punishing it by fine and imprisonment. We also know that some of the dignitaries in the Mormon Church hurl defiance at the enactment of Congress against the practice. Others, not so bold—and perhaps not so honest—talk about the Act of 1863 to prevent and punish the practice of polygamy, as being unconstitutional. The legislative Solons of this Territory last winter culminated a memorial, on the sly, and in a manner that reflects but little credit on the effort, or their position, asking Congress to repeal the law against the practice of polygamy. Is that memorial they set forth that they desired to test its constitutionality, but are not aided or permitted to do so on account of the failure of the Judges to attempt its enforcement. We have this to say, now, and will say more about it after a while, that if that memorial was gotten up in any sincerity, that the United States Grand Jury will be in session next week, and if the fathers of that memorial are not arrant humbugs, they will attempt to test its binding force; or else stand confronted and contradicted by their own language. No good excuse may be assigned for the laws delay, as some of the members of that Grand Jury were members of the legislative body that passed the memorial. We are told that the Foreman of the Grand Jury was a member of the august body that adopted it. So for his own self respect and the honesty of his views, as set forth in that celebrated legislative document, he should embrace this excellent opportunity which will be presented to dispose of the question of its constitutionality; or hasten to acknowledge the lamentable incorrectness and untruthfulness of the statements sent to Washington by the Legislature. The mass of the people in Utah look up to such men for example and advice; and shirking the responsibility, failing to embrace the opportunity that in the winter just past they were sighing for, aye! dying for, almost—if we can believe the memorial—won't help to endear them to the reflecting and thinking portion of it, much longer.

Give the law a trial, if you doubt its efficiency and sufficiency, or don't send any more quibbles to Washington, complaining about the Judges, and that you haven't had an opportunity to test the validity of the law.

Salt Lake City, June 27.
EDITOR VEDRETZ:—Seeing that an attempt at refutation is made in the Telegraph to-day, by the woman that keeps Point of Rocks station on Bitter Creek, concerning something that appeared in the VEDRETZ of last week, I feel in duty bound, as one of the passengers in that coach, to elucidate the matter as I see. In the first place, there were three passengers by that coach who informed the editor of the VEDRETZ, myself being one of the three, and the lady passenger knew nothing about it, and I was satisfied with what appeared in the VEDRETZ then, but now that an attempt is made to deny what then appeared, I give another chance for refutation. There being seven passengers in the coach little comfort or ease could be obtained, and having had a long and rough road to go over that day the lady passenger took sick. After being helped out of the coach she felt worse, and when she got to the station commenced vomiting. She then asked the keepers for a drink of water, not being able to get it herself, when she was answered with, "Here's the water, help yourself." Supper being ready, and the lady feeling a little better asked for some tea, but was told there was none in the house. She then asked for some peppermint, camphor, ginger, or anything that would relieve her, making the remark that she was very sick. "What's that to me if you are, I don't keep a doctor shop," was the response. As for the coach and other paraphernalia, the anonymous writer tells a great falsehood. Wonder why or how those little things came behind that chest or trunk, and to whom did they belong? And why did a passenger have to go and demand those little things? Wonder whether the anonymous writer wants to be told what those little things were. About the toothbrush there is this much, it shows that the whole letter is founded on falsehood, and that she is capable of more than is herein said. The "grub" question must be dormant, and if any more proof is wanting it will be forthcoming.

"Loads" or FLOUR—Charley Becker's train of a dozen or more wagons, came to town yesterday from the North. Laden with flour for Capt. Wm. H. Hooper. The people north of here keep some on hand all the time, and have a fair prospect of a good wheat crop this harvest.

Flour—We are informed that flour has taken a rise in Montana, and there is a probability of it going up a good figure this summer. No flour of any moment has been shipped from St. Louis or any other point on the river, for the Montana mines this spring. Consequently their stock of this necessary commodity is diminishing and needs to be replenished. We will have a good harvest this year in Utah, plenty of flour to sell, and can supply Montana in her wants with this necessary article, if a remunerative price is paid for it. We need money here, and they need flour in the winter. We stand ready to exchange on such terms as will be beneficial to both, and not injurious to either.

GRANT SALT LAKE CITY, 20th Ward, at Home.

Mr. Editor.—Let me let the Telegraph this morning, with the howls of a letter from the Bitter Creek country in it. Ha! ha! ha! That station woman can write much better than I can. I did not know she wrote for the papers! She didn't sign her name! Quess, ain't it? Well! well! Literary women aren't to be recommended as very good housekeepers, when I was a girl. That's a good bill of fare she sets out in the newspaper—a great deal better than I supposed she set out on her mahogany at Bitter Creek. Really, Mr. Editor, did that lady at Rock Point Station write that? I ain't got much book learnin', but it is better gotten up—whether true or not—than anything in the Telegraph for weeks. Wonder who she employs as amanuensis? The editor says he has been there. Perhaps the mistress loaned him her tooth-brush, furnished him with camphor and paragon, and made him a little weak tea when he was there. He is a nice man, and likely to receive a heap of attentions from literary ladies. By the way, an acquaintance of mine says they are doing better at Rock Point than before your flattering notice. Were you really blackmailing that station for an advertisement? How could you do such a thing? Paugh! on you, Mr. Editor! don't you ever attempt to black-mail me! I won't stand it!

I have the tooth-ache horribly, and there ain't a bit of camphor or paragon in the house; and I'm ticklish about going out with my jaws bundled up; so I will have to write you what I know. You can rely on it, that no man can become a polygamist hereafter, until all appearances of tithing are squared up; and ten dollars extra is paid over to the Church. Oh! my! but this tooth-ache is horrible. I must have this tooth extracted. Just give my respects to that "blue stocking" in the Bitter Creek country, and I remain As ever yours, And always to be relied upon, JEREMIAH BUNDS.

A large & full Circular, giving information of the greatest importance to the young of both sexes. It teaches how the homely may become beautiful, the despised respected, and the forsaken loved.

Address: Madame E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has established the scientific basis of the Old World.

Madame E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has established the scientific basis of the Old World. She possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of increased power, known as the Psychometre, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with the date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can attest. She will send when desired a certified certificate or written guarantee that the picture is what it purports to be. By including a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and inclosing five cents and a stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications strictly confidential. Address in confidence MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson N. Y.

KNOW THY DESTINY.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same.

FOR ONE DOLLAR.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' JEWELRY ASSOCIATION

Call your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner.
Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German war, and the recent disastrous financial crisis in Europe, has caused the failure of a large number of Jewelry houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing.
We have lately purchased very largely of these Bankrupt Goods, at such extremely low prices that we can afford to send away finer goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes, than any other establishment doing a similar business. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Jewelry Association, and have kindly allowed the use of their names:
